concluded his terrible ordeal of starvation to-night—if he live so long. That will complete his forty-five days of abstention from any nourishment whatever except water, seltzer and the few drops daily of his elixir, a powerful anotype, which is nothing more nor less than a compound of the strongest opiates.

It will surprise nobody to see something happen to him at any time. He is in a condition where anything might develop.
He is a sullen, weazened, miscrable-looking little wretch, who has made himself a sick man to get money by making a show of his sufferings, who has doubled the price of admission since his sufferings increased, and who is just now getting a good deal of silver.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

TTO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN The time has arrived when persons who owe bills must pay them or lose their credit.

Do not take offense when you receive our notices, but if you are unable to pay go and make some arrangement with the party you owe toward a settlement. What we want is protection for our mer-chants against that class of persons who can, but will not, pay their bills.

These persons who have falled to make any arrangement for settling their bills after hav-ing been properly notified, will be reported to the members of the Merchants' Mutual Protective Union as unworthy of credit.

This association embraces merchants, doctors, lawyers and all other businesses, trades and protessions.

We hope members will send in lists of names of persons who have falled to settle or make arrangement therefore in time for our report.

You will probably sak: How can the MUTUAL INVESTMENT ASSOCIATION OF BALTIMORE CITY redeem their bonds at such large figures on such small payments?
The answer is plain: The experience of associations of like character in England and the United States establishes the feasibility of paying $1,000 at the end of seven years' monthly payments.

Now, then, not one of the many associations heretofore organized receives from its members as much money within that time as ours will have received. Consequently it is very easy to understand that no difficulty can possibly occur to prevent the redemption of our bonds.

For example: Our Association will collect $759 in monthly installments, if it were possible for bonds to run that time; whereas the "American Legion of Honor" Association collects only $135, the "Home Circle" of Boston, $128, the "American Order of United Workingmen," $294.

Rise, the "Ancient Order of United Workingmen," $234.

It is quite evident, therefore, why our Association provides for an RAHLIER REDEMP.

TION than seven years at figures depending upon the time the bond has been running.

It requires but a moment's thought to see that, if the various insurance societies can and do pay death benefits from $1,000 to $5,000 on average assessments for less in amount than ours, it is not only possible, but an actual fact, for our Association to redeem their bonds at the exact figures advertised, and thus give purchasers benefits far beyond those ever offered by any other association in the land.

Every other association, whether life insurance or on any other system, such, for example, as the "Equitable League," the "Order of Tonti" and "Iron Hall," would actually cause to exist if new members were not obtained.

To prove to you the vitality and equity of the

To prove to you the vitality and equity of the plan of our Association, it is sufficient to say that since our organization no less than four of the associations of this city have found it in dicious and necessary to completely revise their original plans of payment and to insitute our system of redometrion of bonds at low but our system of redemption of bonds at low but equitable figures.

Our Association has been universally recognized as established on the safest basis ever presented to the public.

The Directors take the heaviest burden. Every effort, by prudent management and uncessing vigilance, will be exerted to secure the interests of the bondholders and to promote the onward progress of the Association.

Rewam for Array Deserters Doubled.

—Secretary Proctor has undertaken the difficult task of reducing the number of desertions among the private soldiers of the Army. His plan, which has been in operation for several months, is a mixture of kindness and severity, and the results so far attained point to it as an improvement over the former system. In the first place, he has endeavored to improve the surroundings of the soldier, to make his daily life more pleasant in camp and post, and to provide for his moral elevation. The "canteen" is an important factor in this plan and has worked well. Having done this, he to-day directed that double the present reward for the arrest of deserters be offered and every effort be made to punish deserters. The present standing reward for the arrest of deserters will, it is thought, deter soldiers from deserting and stimulate civil officers in arresting offenders. In this connection an order was also issued to-day directing department commanders to report September 1 annually the number of desertions which have occurred within their commands during the year, with an expression of their views as to the causes and measures which should be taken to prevent their recurrence. Secretary Proctor has shown much interest in behalf of the common soldier, and the Army orders issued daily, contain commutation of sentences by court martials of soldiers who, in his opinion, have received too severe sentences. By combining kindness and strict obedience to military discipling teaching.

By combining kindness and strict obedience to military discipline, together with the increased reward for deserters, he hopes, and as far as results show, with good rea-son, to reduce the number of desertions among the common soldiers of the Army to a minimum.

MANY NEW PLACES.

What an Inspection of the Appropria-tion Bills Developed.
"Charity begins at home," and "He s worse than a heathen" appear to be favorite maxims with the majority in Congress. At any rate, an inspection of the Appropriation bills show that there have been created 1,334 new and pleasant places in the Government service, a vast majority of which, of course, will be filled by members of the dominant party. The cost of the office to the people aggre-gate $1.450,350 a year. The cost of the office to the people aggregate $1,450,350 a year.

In the Interior Department alone 440 new places were made whose total salaries amount to $550,830. Besides all these new places the salaries of 1,105 officers and employes were increased by the aggregate amount of $1.90,255.12 a year. And this Congress is not yet at an end.

building 226 Fifth avenue, in the heart of the city.

The burglars instead of resorting to the usual method of forcing a door or transom cut a hole in the foundation wall big enough to admit the passage of a man and through this made their way into the store of McNellis & Campbell. Only the finest silks and linens were carried off, and what the thieves left of these they probably could not handle for lack of room in the express wagon they used to make the daring job a success.

There is a passage between the looted store and the adjoining store which is closed by a high fence. The fence prevented anybody passing the spot from seeing the burglars during the five or six hours it took them to cut through three feet of solid masonry. The police are hunting high and low for them and for the stolen goods, but have not found a single clue to either.

A SCOUT ARRESTED.

spected of Having Given the Indian OMAIIA, NEB., Dec. 20.—A special from Camp Carr, on the Cheyenne River, says: John Farnham, who has been in the employ of the Government as a scout, was yesterday placed under arrest by order of General Carr under instructions from General Miles. Farnham is suspected of giving information concerning the movement of the troops north of the Cheyenne River to the hostiles. Farnham is a squaw man, and is married to an Ogallagala squaw. The troops at this campare ready for a forward movement as soon as orders are received, and if given permission will have no difficulty in penetrating to the Indian stronghold.

Dr. McGillicuddy, John R. Brennan, and Americus Thompson went to within two or three miles of the Indian camp in the Bad Lands, and found several routes in and out of the so-called impregnable stronghold. The Indians yesterday were firing the grass in the basin north of the White River slope, and it is thought to be a signal to Sitting Bull's warriors.

An Escaped Siberian Exile Says Miss riage Customs to Remain Undis-

London, Dec. 20.-The Czar, it is stated, has ordered an investigation by the Senate as to the responsibility of Director Illinsky of the Holy Synod for the acts of his niece. Olga Ivanovsky, the beautiful young Nihilist. It appears that during the director's absence Olga, who had control of her uncle's household arrange-ments, held meetings of Nihilists in her apartments, and concocted a conspiracy which aimed at the overthrow of the govrnment, if not at the life of the Czar. The director is looked on as culpable be cause he did not find out what was going

An escaped Siberian exile named Volkhavasty delivered a thrilling account of his experiences at a meeting of the Society of the Friends of Russian Freedom on Thursday evening. He said that it was a farce for any one to visit Siberia, or even Russia, with the avowed purpose of getting at the real condition of affairs. The mission of Miss Marsden would therefore, in his opinion, prove barren of good results.
